Where learning comes to Play

Our Philosophy

The Light House Children's Museum philosophy is based upon three core values which are:

1. Families are important as the child's first and primary teacher.
2. Children of all ages deserve respect and the opportunity to learn.
3. Learning occurs everywhere in different ways.

T-Together

The goal of The Light House Children's Museum is to provide an enriching atmosphere where families, school children and friends can come to learn and interact through play. We desire to challenge children of all ages to learn and explore in new ways by interacting with the exhibits at their own pace. We will provide a bright interactive, aesthetic and positive atmosphere for all patrons in a safe and educational way.
